Yo, Carlos!
So I just got back from the 7-Eleven, and you will not believe what I...

Uh... hey, man.
You look like you're having another one of your episodes.
Should I call someone, or...?

...Have you ever wondered if we're all unwitting actors in some tragic cosmic play?
Maybe that's why we all hurt so much. It needs to happen.
We need to suffer for the story to work.

Our suffering is as beautiful as it is necessary;
For only in our deepest anguish can we truly realize our full potential.
Pain is naught but art, my friend...

And I am nothing less than a master artist.

Oh, hey!
Don't worry, dog, I've got'cha covered.
I know what'll cheer you right up!
